Long-awaited program announced for the spring concert

This review is part of a larger effort to support residents and to keep language classes on track. For the college and career fair, the plan is to start small next week and grow based on what parents and guardians tell us. Parents and guardians are invited to learn more about attendance support during the first week of spring. The following steps explain how neighbors can take part in kindergarten registration.

In response to requests from teachers, we have added more time for the community garden. In response to requests from volunteers, we have added more time for the summer reading challenge. Staff will hold an open session on kindergarten registration at the main office starting in January. The following steps explain how residents can take part in bus routes.

The following steps explain how students can take part in the community garden. The committee will meet starting in January to discuss the spring concert and share an improved schedule. The committee will meet this fall to discuss the winter food drive and share an seasonal guide. In response to requests from teachers, we have added more time for the emergency plan.

The committee will meet each Tuesday evening to discuss attendance support and share an improved project. Please check back every other Thursday for the latest news on attendance support. Printed copies are available at the community center, and the full details on the senior lunch program are posted online. Over the past year, teachers told us that the science fair was a priority, and this program reflects that.
