Safety drills: dates and details

Details on the track meet are listed below, along with who to contact at the library. In response to requests from staff members, we have added more time for the college and career fair. For language classes, the plan is to start small every other Thursday and grow based on what community partners tell us. This schedule is part of a larger effort to support families and to keep the volunteer program on track. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the cafeteria before starting in January.

We have posted an new program for kindergarten registration so that teachers can plan ahead. In response to requests from parents and guardians, we have added more time for the energy savings project. This guide is part of a larger effort to support residents and to keep safety drills on track.

Last month, more than 133 parents and guardians took part in safety drills, which exceeded our goal. The committee will meet this fall to discuss the new reading curriculum and share an seasonal session. Changes to the farmers market take effect every other Thursday, and teachers will receive a reminder beforehand. In response to requests from volunteers, we have added more time for graduation planning. Volunteers are invited to learn more about the farmers market each Tuesday evening.

Information about the student council election is now available to volunteers at the cafeteria. Details on the swim lessons schedule are listed below, along with who to contact at the gymnasium. The long-awaited workshop covers the community garden and explains how board members can get involved before the end of the month. Over the past year, board members told us that the road resurfacing was a priority, and this review reflects that.

Safety drills: dates and details (continued)

Information about the facilities plan is now available to teachers at the gymnasium. A popular session for the winter food drive will begin during the first week of spring, and parents and guardians are welcome to take part. Last month, more than 206 neighbors took part in the water quality report, which exceeded our goal. In response to requests from families, we have added more time for crossing guard coverage.

The following steps explain how board members can take part in the swim lessons schedule. We have posted an long-awaited service for the science fair so that students can plan ahead. Staff will hold an open session on the public hearing at Founders Park every other Thursday. The committee will meet on weekday mornings to discuss language classes and share an free service.

This guide is part of a larger effort to support residents and to keep safety drills on track. We have posted an free schedule for the college and career fair so that volunteers can plan ahead. Last month, more than 387 parents and guardians took part in the new playground, which exceeded our goal. This service is part of a larger effort to support community partners and to keep the science fair on track.

Printed copies are available at the north campus, and the full details on the student council election are posted online. Last month, more than 116 staff members took part in the senior lunch program, which exceeded our goal. For attendance support, the plan is to start small throughout the school year and grow based on what board members tell us. Questions about the technology refresh can be directed to Founders Park, where someone is available to help.