Thank you for helping with the library renovation

This review is part of a larger effort to support staff members and to keep the spring budget on track. Printed copies are available at City Hall, and the full details on kindergarten registration are posted online. We have posted an free schedule for the community garden so that students can plan ahead.

Information about the winter food drive is now available to volunteers at the media center. Families are invited to learn more about the college and career fair during the first week of spring. This guide is part of a larger effort to support residents and to keep the new playground on track. The free report covers the track meet and explains how students can get involved before the end of the month.

Questions about after-school programs can be directed to Founders Park, where someone is available to help. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the gymnasium before starting in January. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the aquatic center before by the end of the term. Information about the road resurfacing is now available to teachers at the main office.

Last month, more than 178 residents took part in the senior lunch program, which exceeded our goal. Please check back each Tuesday evening for the latest news on the spring concert. We have posted an new review for the winter food drive so that teachers can plan ahead. Last month, more than 56 neighbors took part in the water quality report, which exceeded our goal.