The college and career fair moves forward

Questions about the senior lunch program can be directed to the main office, where someone is available to help. Staff will hold an open session on the spring concert at the media center starting in January. Thank you to the residents who helped with the winter food drive; your time made a real difference. Information about the college and career fair is now available to residents at the library. Questions about the community garden can be directed to the aquatic center, where someone is available to help.

Over the past year, parents and guardians told us that language classes was a priority, and this session reflects that. This project is part of a larger effort to support families and to keep after-school programs on track. Staff will hold an open session on the arts showcase at the main office throughout the school year. Please bring a photo ID if you plan to visit the gymnasium about crossing guard coverage.

Changes to the energy savings project take effect before the end of the month, and parents and guardians will receive a reminder beforehand. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the community center before next week. The committee will meet over the winter break to discuss the summer reading challenge and share an expanded project. In response to requests from neighbors, we have added more time for the spring concert. The seasonal session covers the public hearing and explains how parents and guardians can get involved throughout the school year.

Details on the technology refresh are listed below, along with who to contact at the front entrance. Accommodations are available on request; ask at the gymnasium before each Tuesday evening. Anyone who cannot attend in person can send comments about the arts showcase to Founders Park. Changes to the farmers market take effect this fall, and parents and guardians will receive a reminder beforehand.
